

National University of Mongolia

School of Foreign Service

Ulaanbaatar, Sukhbaatar District, University's street-1,
Building-5 of National University of Mongolia

<http://www.num.edu.mn> or <http://sfs.num.edu.mn>

Outline of International conference:

The 7th Asian Federation of Middle East Studies Associations Conference (AFMA) will be held in Ulaanbaatar at the School of Foreign Service of National University of Mongolia campus from 05-07th of September, 2008 under the title of “The current situation and Perspectives of Middle East and Northeast Asia”.

And presentations of 6 panels: historical, political, economical, cultural, environmental and civil society issues.

The program on the First day (September 05, 2008) will be as follows:

1. Opening ceremony
2. Open Panel under the title of Asian (China, Korea, Mongolia and Japan) Diplomatic Policies towards The Middle East (it is free and open to public). At the panel MAMES, KAMES, JAMES and CAMES presidents will be introducing their own policies towards the Middle East and will have open discussion on this topic.
3. AFMA Council meeting, in which presidents and general secretaries will exchange their views on research expansion of Middle East studies, sharing their opinions of their activities and fix the next conference date and its organization.

On the Second day (September 06, 2008)

1. Presentations of 6 panels: historical, political, economical, cultural, environmental and civil society issues
2. Concluding Discussion and Closing Ceremony: all participants

Collaborating or Participating Organizations/Individuals

1. Collaborating Organizations

Mongolian Association of Middle East Studies (MAMES)
School of Foreign Service of National University of Mongolia,
Japanese Association of Middle East Studies (JAMES)
<http://www.soc.nii.ac.jp/james/index-e.html>

Korean Association of Middle East Studies (KAMES)
Chinese Association of Middle East Studies (CAMES),
Institute of Commerce and Business

2. Participating Organizations: Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Etugen Institute

3. Individuals: Russian professor